

"New York, New York...!"

Swinging through Manhattan with Margaretha Bessel and the "Mainhattan Connection" from Frankfurt am Main

German House Auditorium, 871 UN Plaza (1st Ave/49th ST)
Time: 6:30 PM EST

Listen to the phenomenal voice of German entertainer Margaretha Bessel (vocals) and to the acclaimed Jazz-musicians Sven Hack (saxophone) and Andrei Likhanov (piano) performing songs with a swing. Enlightening stories about the City, its most famous musicians and their music are accompanied by projected photo-impressions of the "Sidewalks of New York".

Are you 'In the Mood'? Then let's 'Promenade' on the 'Sidewalks of New York'. Starting on '42nd Street', we listen to the Beat of 'Downtown' and to Libby singing her 'Lost Liberty Blues'. We will admire Manhattan's Skyline from the famous 'Brooklyn Bridge' and have a break in 'Central Park'. Time to 'Take the 'A' Train!' up North to dance a 'One Note Samba' and 'Stomp the Savoy'. 'Round Midnight' a 'Blue Moon' will finally sing its 'Lullaby of Birdland'.

Margaretha Bessel holds various masters degrees as a concert singer and musician. She regularly gives concerts (Classical & Cabaret) and Master Classes for singers. Margaretha performed in Europe, Israel, the former USSR, South America and the US, received outstanding critics from the press and has performed at Deutsches Haus @NYU and at the German Residences in Bogotá and Den Haag. www.Margaretha-Bessel.de
